

Statement of Acknowledgement of Accommodation Of Religious Practices

Department of Defense policy is to accommodate religious practices when accommodation will not have an adverse impact on military readiness, unit cohesion, standards, health, safety or discipline.

The Army places a high value on the rights of its members to observe the tenants of their respective religions.

Unit commanders are authorized to initially approve or deny requests for accommodation of religious practices. Conditions of accommodation may change based on military need.

Policy guidelines are contained in AR 600-20 and AR 165-20.

I understand that the Army cannot guarantee accommodation of religious practices.
